CRYONIAN BRUNSWICK.—The members of this club have succeeded in renting a plot of ground at White Hart Lane, Hackney Wick, where a field of practice commenced in earnest a few days since, and the Cryonians seem determined to uphold the fine old English pastime.

SOUTH ESSEX CRICKET.—A new club has been formed under the above title, both men and women, to compete. The president Sir T. Fowell Buxton, Bart., will continue to allow the club to use the ground in Upton Park for matches, and has also permitted another portion to be appropriated for practices, which will be ready by the commencement of the season. The practice days will be Monday and Saturday. Meetings will be at the Southgate, Gravesend, Westbourne, and Eastern Counties Railway are arranged, and others are under negotiation, particulars of which will be duly announced.

VICTORIA PARK UNITED.—The members of this club would have great pleasure in arranging home-and-home matches with the following clubs:—Northwood Park, Tottenham, Uxbridge, City United, and Finchley. Letters addressed to the secretary, White Hart Tavern, Old Ford, E. C. will receive prompt attention.

SHOOTING.

PIGEON SHOOTING AT HORNSEY WOOD HOUSE.

On Saturday last, the members of the aristocratic club met in strong force at the above grounds, and a great deal of shooting took place, but from the high wind that prevailed throughout the afternoon, coupled with the extreme difficulty of the shooting will show. Four handicap sweepstakes were shot for. The first was won by Mr. P. Hambrs, after tying with Mr. Heathcote and Lord Holmeade; the second by Lord Holmeade, after tying twice with Mr. Hambrs; the third by Mr. Barber; and the fourth was likewise booked to his lordship, and the fourth to Mr. Heathcote. The conditions were half-a-crown entry, 25 yds rise; double barrels, 14oz. shot; single, 11oz. shot. Mr. Reed officiated as referee. The shooting commenced at 1 p.m. and continued until 4 p.m., but the number of birds shot may have been increased during the afternoon, thus changing the attractive character of the match. The birds were supplied by Barker, and were quite up to his standard. At the termination of the match sweepstakes were made up and shot for in the true Easter Monday fashion.

CELEBRATED POLE LEAPERS AND WRESTLERS OF CUMBERLAND AND WESTMORELAND.

A Wrestler of Carlisle, is 27 years of age and is one of the most famous men of the day. He has won the almost unprecedented number of one hundred prizes, including twenty-four champion belts, and three massive cups. He has appeared in almost every ring in England, and is celebrated for the gentleness, as well as science, conspicuously displayed in his contests. A far-famed wrestler in Benjamin Cooper, alias "Old Ben," who has been bestow'd on him for a certain dry archness of manner which, added to the peculiar dialect of his birthplace given him tone and character which has mark'd him as a unique performer before the public. He is 111 mrs. but, unfortunately, was prevented from entering for the 1st belt at Honeywood on Good Friday, in consequence of his being just one pound over the mark. Ben came all the way from Carlisle for the purpose of carrying home the belt, but, as he was excluded from the contest, when he returned he was excluded from the contest. He was overmatched in weight; if not in skill, in the heavy weight encounter, and, consequently, had to return home empty-handed, and the disappointment of his friends, rather than himself. He is 30 years of age, and a fine specimen of a northern athlete.

A Leaper of Kendal, is a man and a list man who ever attempted an athletic display before the public. In form he is a perfect Hercules, and in muscular development a complete anatomical study. He is famed principally for his skill in pole leaping. He is about 27 years of age, and is always welcomed as a competitor in the contests.

A Wrestler of Cockermouth, is 23 years of age and is a most promising 1st man. He commenced his career about four years since, and has thrown many of the best men of the day. Admirable judges pronounce him to be coming representative of his country in the sport for which it bears a world-wide reputation.

BLAIR of Allandale, is a capital wrestler. He is about 22 years of age, and is extremely well built.

J. STRONG is from Ulverston, and has performed in many rings with much credit.

He is about 25 years of age, and is in his 27th year. At Hornsey Wood he played with much skill, and considerably added to his reputation.

ROBERT MUSGRAVE, of Cockermouth, who won the first prize on Good Friday at Hornsey Wood House, was 19 years of age on the 11th of last October.

He was the second in the order of his career at Preston, where he met Davy Johnson in August, 1860, for a £50 prize. Johnson jumped 9ft. 6in., and Musgrave only rose 9ft. 4in., thus losing the match by 2in. His next appearance was likewise at Preston in the August following, when he won the leading prize, clearing 9ft. 8in. in 100 yards. Pole-leaping, an exercise not often seen, defeated the other competitors, clearing 9ft. 9in.

The loco in quo was still further changed to Penryl, Cumberland, in the same week, where he cleared 9ft. 8in. The culminating point, however, was his memorable appearance before the Durham elegians for major prizes in May, when he astonished the audience by an unexampled altitude of 10ft. 5in. His performance on Good Friday was recorded in our last impression; and was presented by Mr. Harris, the well-known silversmith and jeweller in Hutton-garden, with a silver watch. In addition to the prizes awarded by the committee of the club, and the Westmoreland Wrestling Society. On Monday, he went to Hackney Wick, where, at the Cornwall and Devon Easter sports, projected by Mr. J. C. Baum, the respected host of the famed Metropolitan Running

Grounds, he won the first prize for pole jumping, clearing 9ft. 4in. in 100 yards with great facility. In 1861, he again turned his attention to the pole, and in his performances he showed himself an excellent light-weight candidate for wrestling honours by winning, in 1861, the 9ft. 8in. wrestling prize at Cockermouth, beating Geo. Meales, of Cockermouth, twice unsuccessful by the swinging type. In 1862, he also succeeded by the swinging type in the 9ft. 8in. race, beating eleven others.

Thus he has shown himself exceedingly active in all athletic games. His brother was the most celebrated leaper of the time, and will be well remembered for his fondness for the exercise. The present bearer of his name bids fair to maintain the reputation attached to it.

JOHN SMITH, 29 years of age on the 2nd of April, is the native of Old Hutton

Westmoreland, is 6ft. in altitude, and weighs 181 lbs when in training.

He won several minor prizes when in his teens, and was of importance then.

It is necessary to mention that when he made his debut in the metropolis at Hornsey Wood House, at the yearly anniversary of "The Two Counties," on the 21st of March, 1856. He was then successful in winning the second prize for all weights—ever since 7 guineas, defeating several others.

In 1857, on Good Friday, at Mr. J. C. Baum's, White Lion, Gravelly, Hackney Wick, when, "of far more boldness and of greater skill," he contended for the head prize for all weights—silver watch, value 10 guineas; and his fame was much enhanced from the circumstance that the celebrated Brushell, a well-leading wrestler, was present, and the two men fought for the honour on that occasion.

In 1858 we again find him putting in an appearance at Hackney Wick, on Good Friday, April 2, when he got second to Gibson, of Westmoreland, for men under 1st, and obtained a silver snuff-box, value 6 guineas. He again proved himself the general of the day at a summer fete given at the Crystal

Palace shortly afterwards, when he cleared the all-weight prize—a handsome silver medal and purse.

On the 18th of September, in the same year, at the Crystal Palace, he was invited by the Early Closing Association, and at their feast he won the Champion's belt for all weights, and opened the other contests. During the year 1859 he was far from being convalescent, and did not appear at the ring-side.

Time drew on for 1860, when we again find him, resuscitated in pristine health and vigour, as an attendant at the Cumberland and Westmoreland Wrestling Festival at Hutton.

It was a grand gathering, and in the all-weight contests after coming against

Wilkinson, M. and T. Robinson and others, he right gallantly added another to his bead-role of victorises; and this performance, without doubt, raised him to the highest rank of fame amongst the denizens of the two famed two counties. The guerdon was a gold watch, worth 10 guineas.

He only showed once, likewise, in the following year—again at the C. and W. festival at Hornsey Wood.

There is nothing in which chance plays mortals such good as at hand, and in the oppossum and mat-apron, by which he contrived to bring them into notice, something must have been done to his health and physique, and at others sending them aloft with no reason at all but her whim.

Thus it was that despite the application of some of the best science and athletic skill

we saw displayed for many a day, there was a harrier stink to his absolute failure, and the public were disappointed for the first time in many a comer, and he was compelled to succumb to the renowned Ben Cooper, of merry Carlisle, one of the most noted wrestlers in the Border country. Gaining secondary honours only, his price was 10 guineas.

His last performance was in the oppossum and mat-apron, at the C. and W. festival, on Good Friday, a full report of which we gave in our Saturday's edition.

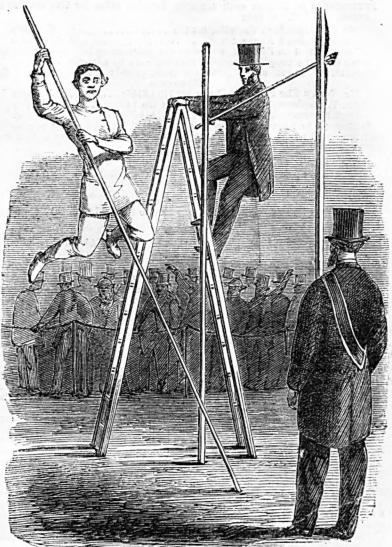

He then contended with forty-one wrestlers for the prize for men belonging to the respective counties named above, but who had been resident in London since the 1st of January 1862; and it was a fine sight to see him Dixon, the champion of 1861, taking the grip to wring off for the first prize.

Here again he at 2 to 1 on Twiddle, but closed at evens, Nevins for choice. Nevins was beaten by his trainer, Thomas Cox, of Coventry, and appeared all that his backers expected. Mr. Holden was also attended by his trainer, Wade, of Middlesbrough, and was in first-class form. The race was run in the report of the pistol, Nevins going after his opponent at a terrific pace. When they had gone about 300 yds he was within 10 yds of Twiddle, but the latter here held him in, together, and a most exciting race took place, Nevins winning, in the last furlong, by half a yard.

COPENHAGEN GROUNDS, MANCHESTER.

GREAT RACE, BETWEEN ALBISON AND SANDERSON.—On Saturday last these grounds were visited by upwards of 2,000 persons, to witness the great race between Siah Albison, of Bow Lee (the present One Mile Champion), and James Sanderson (better known as "Teagle"), of Walsworth, near Bostockdale, the distance being two miles and a quarter. Both were a side, the sum had been previously agreed upon in the hands of the proprietor of the grounds, Mr. Hayes, who also acted to-day as referee. The betting commenced at eight o'clock on Sanderson, but previous to starting 6 to 5 was freely offered on Albison, and the odds of the circulating money were in his hands throughout the affair. On the arrival of the start, Albison at once took up his quarters at Mrs. Appleton's, Newton Common, whilst Sanderson engaged the services of Dr. Fish, of Royton, both men appearing when stripped on the mark and ready to start. At 10 a.m., to the fine sound of the Almond Apparatus, 600 spectators were in Gomersal-square to see the start. The bettors were 6 to 5 on Albison, the odds being 10 to 1 on Sanderson, and the distance 1200 yds. The race was run in the evening, the distance being 1200 yds in racing costume, and to the mark, when a very good start was effected. Sanderson at once taking the lead, which he increased to about 10 yds on passing the stand first time. During the race, several circuitous turns were made; but in the third turn Albison struck hard, to overthrow his antagonist, but in the fourth Sanderson put on the high pressure, and got at least 90 yds in advance. From this point the race was all over, as Albison gave up dead beat at the bottom of the back stretch on the last lap, Sanderson, of course, walking in as he pleased.

MONDAY, APRIL 21ST.—TO-DAY there was about 300 persons met, the greater part of which was from Yortshire, to witness the match between A. Booth's Sons, of Huddersfield, and T. Cowell's Barlif, of Bowling, to run the best of 21 courses for £20 a side. The bettors were 6 to 5 on the Huddersfield men, and the stakeholder, Mr. Holden, to referee. The betting was 6 to 4 on Sia, who won, having beaten the other with 10 yds.

GREAT MATCH FOR £200 AND THE ONE MILE CHAMPION'S BELT.—WHITE AND ALBISON.—John White, of Galeshead, and Siah Albison, of Bow Lee, are matched to run the best of 21 courses for £100 a side. White to receive 10 yds starts, and the winner to have the belt. Mr. Holden is appointed stakeholder and referee, and he now has £10 a side, to be made up to £20 a side on April 30th.

Francklin, of Liverpool, J. French, alias Sykes, of Almondbury, and J. Hurst of Longmoor, are matched to run 2200 yds for £20 a side. Hurst to have 10 yds start, on May 19, at these grounds. Mr. Holden now has £10 a side.

NOVICE HANDICAP.—Mr. Hayes will give £15 to be run for novices at these grounds on Saturday, May 19th, in a handicap foot race, distance 1200 yds. Entrance, 1s. Each All entries to be made at the grounds by May 1st. Stake, as cash.

GIP AND POLLY.—Mr. Hayes now has £15 a side for the match between T. Morris, of Ashton-under-Lyne, and J. Mason's Polly, from the same place, to run 2000 yds, for £10 a side, at those grounds on May 1st. Mr. Hayes is also to be the referee.

DOG HANDBALL.—A dog handicap, distance 2000 yds, will take place here on May 19th, and 1st. First prize, £5; second, 21 lbs.; third, 10s. Entrances 2s. 6d. each, and no account taken. The start will be on Tuesday, May 6th. All entries to be made at the grounds. Stamps as cash. Weights and colours to be named at the time of entry, and four ounces allowed.

CUMBERLAND AND WESTMORELAND WRESTLING.—An attempt was made on Tuesday last to renew the yearly meeting of the Cumberland and Westmoreland Society, they having for a long time withdrawn from all their gatherings. However, they tried once more at this well-known arena. The weather was very unfavourable, it being both cold and windy, accompanied by heavy rain. Nevertheless, some of the bouts were well contested, and afforded much gratification to the spectators. The judges were Messrs. Upperton and Venner, and Misses Williams was referee. The winners of the first rounds for light weights were T. Burgess, and Higginson. T. Scott, and G. Graham, of Carlisle; J. Geddes, W. Gudger, Hollis, J. Harwood, Lister, and J. Jackson, of Kendal; and J. Jackson, of Lancaster, son of Manchester; T. Sutton, T. Carter, and R. Topliss, of Kendal. The final bout was between T. Scott and J. Eilson, when Scott won having got the first and third throw.

SALFORD BOROUGH GARDENS.

MONKS AND NUTTALL.—On Friday last a party of 500 persons met here to witness the match between James Nuttall, of Manchester, and Thomas Monks, of Carlton, to run 120 yds for £2 a side, which sum was to be given to the Royal Naval Hospital, St. Bartholomew, Manchester, who also acted as referee. The betting was 6 to 5 on the Monks, and 10 to 1 on Nuttall. At five o'clock in the afternoon, both men appeared within the enclosure and, after some preliminaries were arranged the men started by mutual consent, Nuttall making about 1 yd to gain, with a very good race ensued, Nuttall leading all along, about 4 or 5 yds from the finish, when Monks collared him, and won by half a yd.

FRIDAY, APRIL 21ST.—ACTON AND WOOLSTONHOLME.—To day, being fixed for the meeting, there was about 600 persons present, the contest being between John Acton, of Ashton, and Sam'l. Woolstonholme, of Clifton, to wrestle the best of three for a 1200 yds fashion, each bout without shoes. As is usual, the play commenced in making "standards" when the more noticeable were the two Moners, Allen, Wakeham, and others. In the double play excellent science was displayed, as evidenced by John Meneer (C) and Thompson (D), and Moore (E) and Venner (F). The first bout was a seven yds, as the men were well matched; it lasted some minutes, both being chary of giving a chance, perhaps too chary, the patience of the spectators being rather wearied, as it was quite dark, and scarcely anything to be seen. The victory rested on the best two throws out of three, the first of which was won by Jamison after seven severe attempts to get a hold. Meters were then balanced by Wright's getting the next throw, but as the rim was broken and out of order, the bout was stopped. The result of the final bout offers to kick Jamison at 2 to 1 were numerous. Jamison won the third with a clever hook heel, which terminated the contest.

Before the commencement of the wrestling, there was some splendid exhibition of the art of swordsmanship, when the two brothers, J. and J. Strong, Musgrave, Pearson, Robson, Hawtorn, Mein, Hodgson, Gilchrist, Jamison, Wallace, and Baines.

At the end of the contest the number of reduced to Musgrave, Baines, and Jamison. Musgrave won the first prize, Baines the second, and Jamison the third.

WRESTLING.

CUMBERLAND AND WESTMORELAND SOCIETY.

In our Saturday edition of last week we gave a lengthy account of the wrestling at Horneby Wood, on the previous day. Want of space compels us to withhold the report in this issue; we give the results of the play, however, and trust our readers with enlarged copies of the previous issue of the day, as well as post-cards, for complete information for the various prizes.

Altogether 800 persons assembled to witness the proceedings, which lasted over a space of eight hours, and only terminated when the evening was so far advanced as to render it necessary to illuminate various parts of the grounds.

The first bout at wrestling was for men belonging to the respective counties of Cumberland and Westmoreland residing in London since the 1st of January, 1862.

The first prize was a gold watch, the second a silver watch, the third and fourth silver rings. The first bout was for the best of three, which Smith won in the most scientific manner. Dixon took the second prize, Strong the third, and Gilchrist the fourth.

The second were for men under 18, lost on all comers, for the Champion's belt and a guinea in money, with £12 divided into other prizes.

J. Scott and J. Scott had to contend for the honour of wearing the belt, for the possession of which there was a sharp contest, in which J. Scott came off the conqueror.

The third bout was for heavy weight men of the respective counties of Cumberland and Westmoreland. The prizes were the Champion's belt and 12 guineas, and sovereigns of money.

W. Wright was left to do battle for the heavy weight belt, as the men were well matched; it lasted some time, both being chary of giving a chance, perhaps too chary, the patience of the spectators being rather wearied, as it was quite dark, and scarcely anything to be seen. The victory rested on the best two throws out of three, the first of which was won by Wright after seven severe attempts to get a hold. Meters were then balanced by Wright's getting the next throw, but as the rim was broken and out of order, the bout was stopped.

The fourth bout offers to kick Jamison at 2 to 1 were numerous. Jamison won the third with a clever hook heel, which terminated the contest.

Before the commencement of the wrestling, there was some splendid exhibition of the art of swordsmanship, when the two brothers, J. and J. Strong, Musgrave, Pearson, Robson, Hawtorn, Mein, Hodgson, Gilchrist, Jamison, Wallace, and Baines.

At the end of the contest the number of reduced to Musgrave, Baines, and Jamison. Musgrave won the first prize, Baines the second, and Jamison the third.

MARON HOUSE, WALWORTH.

On Good Friday the large crowd assembled at this establishment sufficiently tested the skill of wrestling in the good old style of Devon and Cornwall, when the men of the neighbourhood, dressed in the national costume of Clifton, to wrestle the best of three for a 1200 yds fashion, each bout without shoes. As is usual, the play commenced in making "standards" when the more noticeable were the two Moners, Allen, Wakeham, and others. In the double play excellent science was displayed, as evidenced by John Meneer (C) and Thompson (D), and Moore (E) and Venner (F).

The first bout was 2 to 1 on Woolstonholme, and Mr. Holden was stakeholder, and Mr. Hayes referee. The betting was 6 to 5 on the brother Meneer were the best men, John "gave his back," and Allen having thrown Williams and Bescot down. Wakeham the prize went to him, and whilst Woolstonholme had secured the services of John Cross, of Ashton, after three o'clock they commenced hostilities, but in four minutes Ashton threw him, and the two men struggled again came to the mark, but in twelve minutes more Woolstonholme shared the same fate, Ashton thus winning both throws in sixteen minutes.

Chlorodyne is a liquid taken in drops according to age.
Among Invalids it relieves the pain of Neuralgia, Rheumatism, and Neuralgic Neuralgia; relieves the spasms of the respiratory system, calms and refreshing sleep, all irritation of the nervous system when all other remedies fail, leaving no bad effects such as opium or laudanum, and can be taken when none other can be tolerated. It is valuable in life long in life, in

EXTRACTS OF MEDICAL OPINIONS.

From the medical journals, M.L. I have no hesitation in stating that I have never had with any medicine so efficacious as an anti-spasmodic and sedative. I have used it in Consumption, Asthma, Phthisis, and other diseases, and have found it most successful. I consider it the most valuable and certain remedy we have."

Dr. Gibbon, Army Medical Staff, Calcutta.—"Two doses completely relieve Diarrhoea, E. G. Ridout, Surgeon, Egham.—"As an astringent in severe diarrhoea, and an anti-spasmodic in Colic, with Cramps in the Abdomen, the relief is instantaneous. As a sedative in Neuralgia and Tic-Dolorous its effects were very remarkable. In Ulcerous Affections I have found it extremely useful."
